The CEO also informed that there will be carry forwards commitments for the Primary officer and GLAIF plus some high volume reprints such as Ceumannan 2. The high electricity and water meter charges within the An Tosgan is of a concern to the agencies based within the building and discussions are ongoing with CNES. Members discussed corporate management and administration salaries. Members requested a breakdown of how the percentages, for corporate time and salaries, were agreed for the next meeting. Breakdown – Travel and Accommodation costs The CEO explained the breakdown of travel and accommodation expenses. Following discussion it was agreed that travel and accommodation expenses and costs would be shown individually for each staff and board member. At the suggestion of the CEO, it was agreed to dispense with Stewart Travel. This provides an estimated saving of £2000 per annum. RnA Funding 2015-16 The CEO updated members that the quarterly report had been submitted to the Government. BnG Funding 2015 -16 The CEO updated members and that the accounts and quarterly report had been submitted to Bòrd na Gaidhlig. RnaA Funding 2016-17 The CEO updated members and informed them that an offer of grant letter had been received. The offer was at the same standstill level of funding as the previous 2015-16 year. BnG Funding 2016-17 The CEO updated members that he was in contact with Bòrd na Gàidhlig regarding funding. At this time, no definitive figure had been given and he was awaiting a response and confirmation.	CEO
