

Education Scotland

Celia MacArthur

(Wednesday afternoon)

Celia MacArthur, from the Teacher Education Team, will guide participants through the Professional Learning area of the Education Scotland website. This session is suitable for practitioners at all stages of their careers. Celia will lead discussion on Career-long Professional Learning and Professional Review and Development (PRD). Professional learning is key to assisting practitioners with enhancing their capacity to embrace change; lead; work more effectively with others; reflect and enquire; and deliver an improved education for children and young people. Along with a secondary Head Teacher, Celia will also highlight how newly published support materials have helped staff engage more positively with PRD.

Cruinneachadh nam Fileantach

Mairi MacRitchie

(Wednesday morning & Thursday afternoon)

A session looking at materials which have been collected so far which could be used with native speakers in Secondary, and the grammar booklet and other grammar resources which are in preparation. Participants are asked to bring one resource for N4 or N5 native speakers to the session as an example of an assignment which worked well for them with a class.

ASN – Additional Support Needs

Archie MacLulich and Fiona Lyon

(Wednesday morning and Thursday morning)

Exploring the use of dynamic assessment and screening tools in Gaelic Medium Education; using these approaches in collaborative assessment of Additional Support Needs.

Teaching Religious and Moral Education

Donald MacLeod

(Wednesday morning and Thursday morning)

Donald MacLeod will give an overview of the material and the course structure used in the Nicolson Institute. He hopes this will encourage other Gaelic teachers to teach the subject. Discussion of the materials and structure will follow with a view to expanding upon them.

FilmG

Muireall Urquhart

(Wednesday afternoon and Thursday morning)

Muireall Urquhart, who has a background in both teaching and the media, will give an overview of FilmG and how it can be used to develop talent and as part of an educational experience for CFE. She will explain what makes a good film, how to develop ideas and plan the filming, and provide a range of practical tips and tricks to ensure your school produces an excellent film.

Idioms

Margaret MacIver

(Wednesday afternoon and Thursday afternoon)

A session on idioms within the context of the module on idioms which will form part of Cruinneachadh nam Fileantach
